

【定期試験対策講習】

二学期 期末末考查 予想問題

中2甲陽英語

【注意事項】

使役・知覚の並べ替え問題を載せています。
長文については1つだけ(パート1、2の2部構成のもの)載せています。
今回はその他の長文から英文の抜粋も載せておきました。
念のため全文読みますが独力でできるようにしておきましょう。
キクタンは別紙になっています。

健闘を祈ります。

英語科 高木

STUDY COLLABO.

ENGLISH SHEET

① リスニング 省略

② 単語 別紙参照

③ 全文書き換え問題 省略

④ 並び替え問題

次の日本語の意味に合うように, []内の語句を並べかえなさい。

1) 前もって知らせてくれてありがとう。

() in advance.

[me / thank / letting / know / you / for]

2) ユミはジュンがその建物に入るのを見た。

().

[Jun / Yumi / the building / saw / enter]

3) 旅行中, パスポートを盗まれないように気をつけなさい。[斜体の語は必要に応じて適当な形に変えること]

Be careful () the trip.

[your passport / during / to / have / not / steal]

4) ユカはいつもお姉さんに髪の毛を切ってもらいます。

Yuka ().

[hair / always / cut / by / has / her / her sister]

5) 彼は私が本棚を動かすのを手伝ってくれました。

He ().

[helped / move / me / the bookshelf / to]

6) 父は私にコンピュータを使わせてくれた。

().

[computer / let / use / father / his / my / me]

7) 母がキッチンから私を呼んでいるのが聞こえた。[斜体の語は必要に応じて適当な形に変えること]

I () the kitchen.

[me / from / my / hear / call / mother]

8) 私は友人にかばんを運んでもらいました。

I ().

[my bags / got / to / my friend / carry]

9) 髪切ったの？すごく似合ってるよ。[斜体の語は必要に応じて適当な形に変えること]

Have ()? It looks really great.

[cut / you / your hair / have]

10) 私は昨日髪を切ってもらいました。

() yesterday.

[I / my / cut / had / hair]

11) 私は真夜中にだれかが叫ぶのが聞こえて起き上がった。

I got up () of the night.

[in / because / heard / I / the middle / shout / someone]

12) ケンは自分の名前が人ごみで呼ばれるのを聞いた。

() in a crowd.

[heard / called / Ken / name / his]

13) 私はネコがイスの下で眠っているのに気づいた。

() under the chair.

[sleeping / noticed / cat / I / my]

14) アヤは風でぼうしを飛ばされました。

() by the wind.

[off / blown / got / Aya / hat / her]

15) 姉はそのとき背中をだれかに触られるのを感じた。

My sister () at that moment.

[touched / someone / her / by / back / felt]

16) 彼は娘がピアノを弾くのを聞いていた。

He ().

[was / the piano / daughter / to / play / his / listening]

17) 1人の警官がかばんを盗まれた男性と話をしています。

A police officer is talking ().

[his bag / with / stolen / who / a man / had]

18) 息子に空港まで迎えに行かせます。

I'll () at the airport.

[up / my son / you / have / pick]

19) 私は歯科医に歯を診てもらった。

I ().

[checked / had / teeth / the / my / dentist / by]

20) どうしてあなたはそんなふうに考えたのですか。

()?

[you / so / think / made / what]

21) 私は自分の声が怒りで震えているのを感じた。

I ().

[my / felt / anger / with / shaking / voice]

22) 先生は生徒が新しい語彙を身につけるのを手助けするために、彼らにたくさんの本を読ませました。

The teacher () new vocabulary.

[his students / them / many books / develop / to help / made / read]

23) 私は混雑した電車の中でさいふを盗まれた。

() on the crowded train.

[I / my / stolen / wallet / had]

24) あなたのメールアドレスを教えてください。

Please ().

[address / know / email / let / your / me]

25) 先生は生徒たちに部屋を掃除させた。

()。

[clean / the teacher / the room / her / made / students]

5 英作文

...(学校プリント要確認・できるだけ長いものを見ておくこと。小テストなど...)

6 プログレス会話文 穴埋め形式問題(各自会話文を一通り音読すること。)

Lesson 14-1

Jiro: I don't want to leave () seeing the famous redwoods.

Tom: Dad says we can do that easily from San Francisco.

Jiro: How can we get there?

Tom: Just () driving across the Golden Gate Bridge to Muir Woods.

Jiro: I hope I can buy some souvenirs them something that weren't "made in Japan."

Tom: Your friends will thank you () bringing them something that's really "American."

Lesson 14-2

Dr. Green: When'll we get to San Francisco?

Mrs. Green: I think we'll be in just an hour.

Dr. Green: They don't have time to serve you anything on these short flights.

Mrs. Green: I know, so I told myself, "Be sure to bring something for the kids."

Dr. Green: Yes. We'll have to take care of ().

Mrs. Green: (To Tom, Mary and Jiro in the seat behind.) Here, kids, help () to some snacks.

Lesson 14-3

Mary: Well, Jiro, what did you find?

Jiro: I found this redwood plaque with some words of St. Francis on it.

Mary: That'll be a good gift. () (), San Francisco itself was named after St. Francis.

Jiro: Yeah. And this is their own local wood.

Mary: That's right, but look at the back. Where was it made?

Jiro: It doesn't say. But how did they get this wood if they're not allowed to cut the trees.

Lesson 15-1

Jiro: I still have to buy some souvenirs.

Dr. Green: We can go to Pier 39 after lunch today.

Jiro: What's that?

Dr. Green: It's a tourist spot with some souvenir shops.

Jiro: That sounds great.

Dr. Green: You'll also see hundreds of sea lion () () the rocks in the water.

Lesson 15-2

Mary: I'm going to make you () "green."

Jiro: No. I won't let you. I'll give you a quarter if you make me say it.

Mary: OK. What color is an apple?

Jiro: Red.

Mary: Right. What color is an orange?

Jiro: Orange, of course.

Mary: What color are grapes?

Jiro: Purple. Most grapes are purple.

Mary: What color is the American flag?

Jiro: Let me say it right. It's...red, white and blue!

Mary: You see? I made you say "blue."

Jiro: No! No! It was "green"!

Mary: There! Now I () you say "green." Where's my quarter?

Lesson 15-3

Dr. Green: Well, Jiro, "All good things must come to an end."

Jiro: I think I'm going to cry.

Dr. Green: Now now. You () cry. May we come to visit you in Japan someday?

Jiro: Of course! It'll be great to have you stay with us.

Dr. Green: Oh, you needn't worry about that. We can () () the Whites.

Jiro: You have given me so much, too. I'll never forget you.

Dr. Green: You gave me so much, too. It's like the story of the () – If you give love, you'll receive love. Goodbye, Jiro.

Lesson1-1

Dr. G: Turn the TV off for a minute, kids. I've got some good news.

Mary: What's up? You look () of ().

Dr. G: Well, I am! I'm going to () () () a conference in London next month.

Mary: That's great! Can we go along, too?

Dr. G: Why not? We should make the () of a chance like this.

Mary: Wow! Summer vacation in "merry old England."

Lesson1-2

Dr. G: Some people I know in London say they'll be () to put us up.

Tom: Like the couple you invited () dinner here last year?

Dr. G: Yes. James and Judy Jackson.

Tom: Don't they have a couple of kids about our age?

Dr. G: They have a son who's a year older than Mary and a daughter about your age.

Tom: I hope they can show us around.

Lesson 1-3

Dr. G: James has asked his mother to let us stay at her place in Chelsea.

Mary: Does she have () room for all of us?

Dr. G: Oh, yes. She's got a large house with a lot of () rooms for B&B rental.

Mary: Bed and breakfast?

Dr. G: That's right. She's going to keep three rooms () for us.

Mary: Hey, neat! That'll be like staying with Grandma White in Washington.

Lesson 2-1

Clerk: Can I help you?

Mary: I'm looking () a guidebook on England – something that's not too ().

Clerk: Well, The Green Guide has all the information that you really need.

Clerk: This is the best one that I've seen, and it's the only one that has lots of cartoons.

Mary: OK. I'll take both of these, please.

Lesson 2-2

Tom: Let me () () you bought today.

Mary: I got a guidebook and this book on British history.

Tom: Let me see the guidebook. I'm not interested () () history books say.

Mary: But here's something that's interesting. It's a story of Alfred the Great.

Tom: Oh yeah. Isn't he the guy that () had the big round table?

Mary: That's not what's written here. You're probably thinking of King Arthur.

Lesson 2-3

Mary: How far is it from London to Brighton and how long does it take?

Tom: OK... it's 50 miles and () () two hours to get there
"by coach."

Mary: How much does it cost to get there? I want to go and see the Channel.

Tom: it costs () () 15 pounds, but you can save a lot by getting a "return" ticket.

Mary: What's the summer weather like in Brighton, I wonder.

Tom: It says here, "It's cool when it's cloudy, but it gets quite warm when it's sunny."

7 長文問題 2つのみ扱う。
(補足・下線部抜出。)

Long experience had taught him how to sell books to people who did not want them. He had an ideal, deep voice and could talk well.

Perhaps you'll let me sit in the kitchen and tell you about this interesting history book while you cook the dinner.

Berry sat down and placed his heavy book carefully on the kitchen table.

Berry heard her opening a drawer and then she came back with a notebook and pencil in her hands.

I saw them land in the grass about 10 feet away.

As it turned out, Kyle had only moved to the area a few weeks earlier, but those guys had done the same thing to him nearly every day.

This is a time of year for thanking all those who helped us make it through high school.

I heard the gasp go through the crowd as this ordinary, yet now popular, boy told us about his weakest moment.

前回のよう、重要な単語を確認しつつ、和訳をしっかりと見ておくこと。

When I was a young man of twenty-four, I met a girl whose name was Alison.

She was very beautiful and clever. We had many happy times together. I thought she liked being with me as much as I liked being with her.

A few months after we became friends, Alison had a birthday. It is often difficult to know what to give a girl for her birthday. This is especially true when you don't have much money. And it seems to be an even bigger problem when the girl herself has already got the kinds of things you have enough money to buy. I wanted to give Alison something that would make her truly happy, instead of giving her anything that most men give their girlfriends. I wanted her to feel that I really thought a lot of her.

I thought about my problem for many days. Then I saw something that gave me an idea.

One morning, while I was working at my desk, I looked up from my computer and saw, through the window, a small plane which was flying high in the sky.

There was something like smoke coming out of the plane, and it seemed that the smoke was turning into some words. While I watched the plane moving across the sky, it wrote, "Everyone Likes Coke." Coke is a soft drink, and the plane was writing an advertisement for it. "That's what to buy for Alison," I said to myself.

On that day, I was lucky enough to leave my work early. I took a bus to the airport just outside the town. I went into an office there, and said, "I want to hire a plane at a low price and want it to write something in the sky over the town."

The girl behind the counter said, "Then you should hire Fred Wallace's plane."

“Where can I find him and what does he look like?” I asked.

“Over there. He is a white-haired old man,” she answered.

I left the office to look for Fred Wallace. At the far end of the airport I could see a very small plane and an old man who was working on it. I walked toward him and said, “Are you Fred Wallace?”

“That’s me. What do you want me to do?”

“On Saturday morning at nine o’clock, can you fly over the town and write in the sky ‘HAPPY BIRTHDAY ALISON’?”

“‘HAPPY BIRTHDAY ALISON.’ There’s nothing to it,” the old man said.

“Then, how much will it cost me?” I asked.

“Well, I’ll need at most a hundred and fifty dollars,” he said.

That was something I least expected because I’d thought I had to pay much more. So I agreed.

That evening I had a meal with Alison. “I want you to do something for me,” I said at the end of the meal.

“Oh? What?”

“On Saturday morning at nine o’clock, I’d like you to look up at the sky over the town. You’ll see something that will make you very happy. I’m not telling you what it is, but I’m sure you’ll like it. Will you do that?”

She laughed and said, “All right. Am I going to see you on Saturday?”

“Oh, yes. Let’s go out to dinner in the evening if you like,” I said.

Saturday morning came. "I hope Fred doesn't forget," I thought.

At nine o'clock I looked up at the sky. At first there was nothing, then I heard a plane. A few minutes later, the old pilot's plane flew over the town. When it was over the town, green smoke began to come out of the plane. The smoke began to spell words. 'HAPPY,' it read. Then 'BIRTHDAY,' it read. 'A' it read, 'L' then 'I' then 'C'...

"Oh no!" I cried to myself. "He can't spell A-L-I-S-O-N." The name the pilot wrote in the sky was A-L-I-C-E! This was the worst of all. Alice was the name of my girlfriend before I met Alison, and Alison knew this. I knew she was hurt. "She may believe that I am thinking of Alice when I spoke to the pilot!" I wanted her to know that the mistake was his, not my own. I tried to phone her many times but I got only her answering machine. I left a message on it. "Hi, Alison. It's me. I have to talk to you about this morning. The pilot made a mistake. I'm sorry. Happy Birthday! Please phone me."

There was no answer from her. Then I bought her a beautiful birthday card and wrote in it, "Dear Alison, I am sorry about what happened this morning. I wanted to give you a birthday surprise, but it seems that the pilot forgot your name. I am sorry if you were hurt or angry. I told him your name. Honestly, I did. Please phone me."

I sent the birthday card and waited for her to phone me. Days passed without my getting a phone call from her.

A week later, I received a letter. Inside there was a press cutting from the local newspaper. It was of a letter to the editor. It said, “Dear Editor, I hope that you will print this letter in your newspaper. My little girl is very ill. She has spent a lot of time by herself, so she often seems to feel lonely. Last Saturday was her birthday. Somebody whose name I don’t know helped her grandfather to fly his plane over our house and write her name in the sky. Her grandfather never remembers her birthday himself; he forgets almost everything. But this year someone helped him to think of it. When my little girl saw her name in the sky, she was very, very happy. I don’t know who did this, but I want to say, ‘Thank you.’”

At the bottom of the press cutting, Alison had added, “I’m so sorry. May I ask you to give me another call?”

8 ボーナス問題 略

こたえ

4

- 1) Thank you for letting me know
- 2) Yumi saw Jun enter the building
- 3) not to have your passport stolen during
- 4) always has her hair cut by her sister
- 5) helped me to move the bookshelf
- 6) My father let me use his computer
- 7) heard my mother calling me from
- 8) got my friend to carry my bags
- 9) you had your hair cut
- 10) I had my hair cut
- 11) because I heard someone shout in the middle
- 12) Ken heard his name called
- 13) I noticed my cat sleeping
- 14) Aya got her hat blown off
- 15) felt her back touched by someone
- 16) was listening to his daughter play the piano
- 17) with a man who had his bag stolen
- 18) have my son pick you up
- 19) had my teeth checked by the dentist
- 20) What made you think so
- 21) felt my voice shaking with anger
- 22) made his students read many books to help them develop
- 23) I had my wallet stolen
- 24) let me know your email address
- 25) The teacher made her students clean the room

Lesson 14-1

Jiro: I don't want to leave without seeing the famous redwoods.

Tom: Dad says we can do that easily from San Francisco.

Jiro: How can we get there?

Tom: Just by driving across the Golden Gate Bridge to Muir Woods.

Jiro: I hope I can buy some souvenirs then something that weren't "made in Japan."

Tom: Your friends will thank you for bringing them something that's really "American."

Lesson 14-2

Dr. Green: When'll we get to San Francisco?

Mrs. Green: I think we'll be landing in just an hour.

Dr. Green: They don't have time to serve you anything on these short flights.

Mrs. Green: I know, so I told myself, "Be sure to bring something for the kids."

Dr. Green: Yes. We'll have to take care of ourselves.

Mrs. Green: (To Tom, Mary and Jiro in the seat behind.) Here, kids, help yourselves to some snacks.

Lesson 14-3

Mary: Well, Jiro, what did you find?

Jiro: I found this redwood plaque with some words of St. Francis on it.

Mary: That'll be a good gift. After all, San Francisco itself was named after St. Francis.

Jiro: Yeah. And this is their own local wood.

Mary: That's right, but look at the back. Where was it made?

Jiro: It doesn't say. But how did they get this wood if they're not allowed to cut the trees.

Lesson 15-1

Jiro: I still have to buy some souvenirs.

Dr. Green: We can go to Pier 39 after lunch today.

Jiro: What's that?

Dr. Green: It's a tourist spot with some souvenir shops.

Jiro: That sounds great.

Dr. Green: You'll also see hundreds of sea lion climbing onto the rocks in the water.

Lesson 15-2

Mary: I'm going to make you say "green."

Jiro: No. I won't let you. I'll give you a quarter if you make me say it.

Mary: OK. What color is an apple?

Jiro: Red.

Mary: Right. What color is an orange?

Jiro: Orange, of course.

Mary: What color are grapes?

Jiro: Purple. Most grapes are purple.

Mary: What color is the American flag?

Jiro: Let me say it right. It's...red, white and blue!

Mary: You see? I made you say "blue."

Jiro: No! No! It was "green"!

Mary: There! Now I made you say "green." Where's my quarter?

Lesson 15-3

Dr. Green: Well, Jiro, "All good things must come to an end."

Jiro: I think I'm going to cry.

Dr. Green: Now now. You mustn't cry. May we come to visit you in Japan someday?

Jiro: Of course! It'll be great to have you stay with us.

Dr. Green: Oh, you needn't worry about that. We can stay with the Whites.

Jiro: You have given me so much, too. I'll never forget you.

Dr. Green: You gave me so much, too. It's like the story of the echo – If you give love, you'll receive love. Goodbye, Jiro.

Lesson1-1

Dr. G: Turn the TV off for a minute, kids. I've got some good news.

Mary: What's up? You look kind of excited.

Dr. G: Well, I am! I'm going to take part in a conference in London next month.

Mary: That's great! Can we go along, too?

Dr. G: Why not? We should make the most of a chance like this.

Mary: Wow! Summer vacation in "merry old England."

Lesson1-2

Dr. G: Some people I know in London say they'll be glad to put us up.

Tom: Like the couple you invited to dinner here last year?

Dr. G: Yes. James and Judy Jackson.

Tom: Don't they have a couple of kids about our age?

Dr. G: They have a son who's a year older than Mary and a daughter about your age.

Tom: I hope they can show us around.

Lesson 1-3

Dr. G: James has asked his mother to let us stay at her place in Chelsea.

Mary: Does she have enough room for all of us?

Dr. G: Oh, yes. She's got a large house with a lot of empty rooms for B&B rental.

Mary: Bed and breakfast?

Dr. G: That's right. She's going to keep three rooms open for us.

Mary: Hey, neat! That'll be like staying with Grandma White in Washington.

Lesson 2-1

Clerk: Can I help you?

Mary: I'm looking for a guidebook on England – something that's not too complicated.

Clerk: Well, The Green Guide has all the information that you really need.

Clerk: This is the best one that I've seen, and it's the only one that has lots of cartoons.

Mary: OK. I'll take both of these, please.

Lesson 2-2

Tom: Let me see what you bought today.

Mary: I got a guidebook and this book on British history.

Tom: Let me see the guidebook. I'm not interested in what history books say.

Mary: But here's something that's interesting. It's a story of Alfred the Great.

Tom: Oh yeah. Isn't he the guy that had the big round table?

Mary: That's not what's written here. You're probably thinking of King Arthur.

Lesson 2-3

Mary: How far is it from London to Brighton and how long does it take?

Tom: OK... it's 50 miles and it takes two hours to get there "by coach."

Mary: How much does it cost to get there? I want to go and see the Channel.

Tom: it costs 15 pounds, but you can save a lot by getting a "return" ticket.

Mary: What's the summer weather like in Brighton, I wonder.

Tom: It says here, "It's cool when it's cloudy, but it gets quite warm when it's sunny."