Before John Adams went out to lunch, he told his colleague, Allen Wilson, to call him at the restaurant if a man named Mr. Jackson came to see him. John came back from lunch only a second ago.

Allen : Hi, John. Did you have a good lunch?

John : It was okay. So, (66)?

Allen : No, nobody called, but...uh...Mr. Jackson came by the office.

John : He's (67)!

Allen : Yes, I know, but...

John : Well, (68)? Mr. Jackson has some very important business to discuss with me. Now I might have lost a big business chance. You know, "(69)." Allen, I asked you to call me before I left the office.

Allen : I know you did, but...

John : I even put a card with the name and phone number of the restaurant on your desk (70) you couldn't contact me on my cellphone.

Allen : John, first of all, I tried calling you on your cellphone, but (71) at the office. I could hear it ringing on your desk.

John : Oh.

Allen : Secondly, I wanted to call the restaurant, but you didn't give me the restaurant card. You didn't put it on my desk.

John : (72). I took it out of my wallet just before I went to lunch. Look! It isn't in my wallet now!

Allen : John, what's that card on the floor? It fell out of your wallet just now.

John : That card? Uh...it's the card I thought I gave you.

Allen : You see! You forgot. (73).

John : Oh, Allen, I apologize for my behavior. It's been a difficult week.

Allen : It can happen to the best of us. "(74)," as they say. Anyway, I have been trying to tell you that Mr. Jackson is waiting for you at the coffee shop across the street. He will be there until 3 o'clock.
