

英文熟考(下)

以下の英文を訳出しなさい。

12. What happened to his life during his school days is strikingly evident from his academic records. Not so striking, but of equal significance, are the changes in his attitude toward his friends.
13. Such is the nature of many sheepdogs that they are happy to spend entire days, from dawn to dusk, working in their pastures without a moment's rest.
14. The result of the murder trial was surprising. So eager was the jury to convict the defendant that they completely ignored reliable DNA evidence which clearly showed his innocence.
15. People today seldom worship the sun as did many in ancient civilizations, but they should not take for granted the light and heat that it provides.
16. As it turned out, Picasso no longer valued the precise depiction of physical reality, as did so many painters in those days; rather, he tended to focus on a more abstract form of "self-expression."
17. The company has accepted six applicants, each of whom its CEO will welcome personally sometime during the first week of April.
18. My mother's guiding principle was "compassion toward others," the importance of which I finally understood only after she had passed away.
19. Some people are obsessed by the idea of attaining "celebrity," in pursuit of which they may do all sorts of foolish things that they will later come to regret.
20. During one of her jungle expeditions, she encountered a species of frog that scientists had believed to have gone extinct, as well as an orchid species which she thought was the most beautiful she had ever seen.
21. Later that month, the Vice president made an announcement that she felt certain would increase her popularity with voters.

解答欄

12.
13.
14.
15.
16.
17.
18.
19.
20.
21.